SEGUIN ISD BOARD OKS RAISES FOR STAFF

Seguin ISD staff will see a bump in pay as the district attempts to keep employees from leaving for other districts or career opportunities. Much like the rest of the state, Seguin ISD is seeing teachers opting to take jobs closer to home or even out of education. In an effort to reduce the amount of staffing changes, the board voted unanimously on Tuesday to give teachers, clerical, maintenance, custodial and transportation a 4% raise, campus administration and other professionals a 3.5% and child nutrition staff a $1.50 an hour raise. Read More

WALNUT SPRINGS HIKE, BIKE TRAIL OFFICIALLY COMPLETE

For two years, Seguin residents Jack and Valerie Lanford watched as a portion of their backyard transformed into the last leg of the Walnut Springs Hike and Bike Trail. “Everything came together,” Valerie said. “It looks beautiful down here.” Read More

NOW SHOWING: SEGUIN MOVIES IN THE PARK

(Seguin) — Grab some popcorn because this Friday night is movie night. The city of Seguin is preparing to launch its first Summer Movies in the Park event. Jennifer Sourdellia, the public information officer for the city of Seguin, says after plenty of planning, the city is excited to bring free movies to local families. Read More

CITY OKS MEASURE TO ACQUIRE UTILITY EASEMENTS FOR WATER

Seguin is moving forward with infrastructure improvements for customers present and future affected by the city’s takeover of water service to Springs Hill Water Corporation territory. City Council recently approved via unanimous vote a resolution giving City Manager Steve Parker responsibility of negotiating acquisition of utility easements and rights of entry for land to move water where it’s needed, Parker said.
